

§ 231-9*Solicitation for charities; permit; raffles; violations and penalties.*A.

No person shall solicit financial aid or assistance from the public offering in return therefore any emblem tag, flower or like symbol; solicit funds for charitable purposes; or sell tags, flowers or other objects for charitable purposes unless a charitable solicitation permit for such activity is obtained from the City Clerk. Charitable solicitation permits shall be issued for a two-day period only. Payment of a fee for a charitable solicitation permit is not required. The holder of such a permit is not authorized, by receipt of a permit, to enter upon private property for charitable solicitation without the consent of the owner of that property.

B.

The authority for the issuance of raffle permits granted under RSA 287-A to the Mayor and Aldermen is hereby granted to the City Clerk. All such permits shall be issued by the City Clerk in accordance with the provisions of RSA 287-A, as it is now written or may hereafter be amended. The fee for each raffle permit shall be $10. All raffle tickets will show the raffle license number.

C.

If any person shall violate the provisions of this section, he or she shall be punished as provided in § 1-12 of the City Code for each offense and in addition thereto shall forfeit all sums taken in violation of this section to the use of the City.
